HomeCU LLC Announces New Members to Board of Directors

HomeCU LLC held its board meeting on Thursday, January 26th 2017. At this meeting, existing board members elected two new candidates for board seats and one new candidate as an associate board member.

Kevin D. Unger, new board member, is employed as the COO of Discovery FCU, located in Wyomissing, PA. Kevin has more than 25 years of experience and offers a depth of knowledge from serving in a variety of roles, ranging from teller to COO, throughout his credit union career. Kevin has been a HomeCU user/client since 1999.

Richard Schulz, new board member, is the President and CEO of New South Credit Union located in Knoxville, Tennessee. Prior to joining New South in 2000, he served as Vice President of another Knoxville-based credit union. Collectively, Richard has served in the credit union industry for over 24 years.

Helen Edwards, new associate board member, is the President and CEO of Norristown Bell Credit Union (PA). She was elected President in January 1996, and is a 20-year veteran of Credit Unions. Helen previously worked for an additional 18 years in local, regional and international banking in diversified executive capacities.

They join the following HomeCU LLC Board members: Jeff Shaw, Wasatch Peaks Credit Union – Board Member, President; Dan Kester, Sooper Credit Union – Board Member, Vice President; Jack Creager, American United Federal Credit Union – Board Member.

HomeCU is very focused on meeting the needs of both our existing credit unions and potential future clients. With these new additions to the board, HomeCU is continuing to build the strength of our leadership team and create broader representation of credit unions. We are looking forward to the knowledge of our new board members to better serve all credit unions.
